WRECK OF THE WHALESHIP ELIZABETH .- The Amercan whiteship Seine, 250 tons, Capt. Laundry, of New Bew Bed-ford, put into this harbor yesterday morning. She has been out 53 months, has taken 1000 bris blackoil, and is last from the Chatham Islands. She has brought on here the crew of the French whating ship Elizabeth, Capt. Painblanc, of Havre, which was unfortunately wrecked on the N.E. side of the Chatham islands on the 15th Februry last. The following are the particulars of the sad accident, so far as we have been able to learn: - The French whaling ship Elizabeth, Emanuel Esto tearn:—The French whaling ship Elizabeth, Emanuel Es-ther Painblanc, master, salied from the port of Havre on the 14th August, 1857, she put into Akaroa to refit, sailed from thence, and arrived at Honolulu on the 5th March. Sailed from there on the 25th March on a whaling croise. On the 21st October, 1857, she anchored at Lahaina Maui, S. L. Left on the 8th Nov., and arrived on the 6th December at Papete, Tahiti. Left Tahite on the 27th December, and on the 12th Fob., 1858, sighted the Chatham Isladds. Anchored on the N. F. side of the island in 19 fathoms water. N. E. side of the island in 12 fathoms water. From some in-information Capt. Painblane received from a European who came on board, he was induced to proceed about forty miles to the northward. He got under weigh, and in working the ves-sel up the Bay, the ship struck suddenly on a sunken reef three miles from the shore. Finding it was useless remaining by the vessel, to the ship's boats, and reached shore about midnight. Hearing from the natives that an American whaler was at an-chor at the other side of the island. Capt. Painblanc walked across the island for the purpose of communicating with her, and succeded in arranging with the Captain of the American whaler for conveying the crew on to Weilington. Left the Chatham Islands on the 24th February, and arrived here on the 5th March. The Elizabeth is a total wreck, and no chance of saving any of the wreck or cargo .- Wellington Independent, WHECK OF THE AMERICAN WHALING SHIP ALEXANDER. —The Alexander belonged to New Bedford, was 241 tons bur-then, and sailed from that port to the South Seas on a whaling voyage, on the 3rd September, 1855. In December last, she yoyage, on the 3rd September, 1838. In December last, she put into this port to refit, and sailed on the 3rd Jan. for New Zealand, to prosecute her whaling voyage. On the 19th inst. she arrived in Cook's Stratts, having on board over 1930 bris sperm oil. About half-past 30'clock that morning the weather being thick and cloudy and very dark (the wind being light being thick and cloudy and very dark (the wind being light from the south, with a swell setting towards the land) she struck on a sunken reef off Capa Campbell, in the Middle Island, not noticed in the charts, lost her helm, sprung a leak and filled fast. She was then steered with the sails and got to the beach about 15 miles to the north of Cape Campbell, where she now lies. Her bottom is broken, and her masts were cut away immediately she struck, to lighten her Capt. Dougherty and the crew got on shore safe. The wreck and cargo was sold at Wellington for £3,295.—Sydney M. Herald.

Total Loss of the American Whaling Shir Contex.

—Advices from the Mauritius state that the American whale-ship Cortes, Capt. Lakeman, had been burnt at Cape Crusade. The officers and crew were all saved. [The Cortes was owned in New Bedford, from whence she sailed on the 3d of July, 1857, and was 382 tons burthen. On the 16th of Dec. last she had on board 160 bris of sperm.]-N. Y. Herald.

SPERM .- We have still a quiet market to report. A sale of 40 bhis, with an extra quantity of head matter, at 125 cts., 智gallon, is the only transaction since our last. WHALE.-There is more inquiry for whale, and the transactions since our last include 1750 bbls, in parcels, at 55 cts. P gallon. Also about 100 bbls, black at 50 @ 51 cts., and 320 oth Sea at a price not transpired. The market closes with a further inquiry.

Whalebour.—The market continues active with a speculative demand, and prices have considerably advanced since our last. The sales for the week include 17,000 hs. Ochotsk at 94 cts., 16,000 do. do. at 96 cts., and 21,000 do. do. at 100 cts. Also 4 000 Ds., South Sea in parcels at a price not transpired. Prices at May 4 had not varied from above. London Oil Market .-- April 9.

Sperm Oil continues very firm at £81 to £82 for really good body oil, but the transactions have been unimportant. The Kingsdown whaler has arrived from the fishery with 1000 bbls. Nothing done in Southern oil.

WHALEBONE—With the exception of a small sale of fair quality Polar, at £400, and a lot of Southern at 250; we have no business to report in this article, and our cutters evince no desire to increase their stocks. Importers hold but little now. -N. B. Shipping List.
